 - Anyone wanting to improve their SLR photography with a solid understanding of the basics
 - Note: This class is not recommended for users of compact automatic cameras or any non-interchangeable lens cameras.
- What does it cover?
 - Handling your camera, adjusting settings, modes, buttons and dials
 - ISO sensitivity, shutter, aperture, lenses
 - White balance, exposure, drive mode, quality, Raw VS. JPEG, flash basics
 - For more see the class outline
- Who teaches it?
 - This class is taught by Keith Starks of Imagery by Keith. Keith began teaching SLR photography in 1983 and his workshop topics over the years include film processing and darkroom printing, landscape, portrait, flash, macro and night photography. Keith and Don's Photo have been partners in photo instruction for the past 11 years and we are proud to have instructed more than 900 photographers in that time.
- Where is it?
 - The class is held at Don's Photo, 1902 8th St. East. (opposite Wendys, 8th St.)
 - The store is closed during classes so the door will be locked when you arrive. Please knock to be let in.
- What should I bring?
 - Bring your camera with a good charge level on the battery and have a memory card with enough room to take some photos.
 - Some class notes are provided but some paper and a pen are suggested.
 - The building is sometimes cool so a sweater may be a good idea.
 - Water, coffee and snacks are up to you. (All good ideas on Sunday classes)
